

SURRENDER TO BULGARIANSTwo Entire Divisions of the Turkish Reserve Force

AT VILLAGE OF MARHAMLI

Bulgarian Besiegers Are Within One Thousand Yards of Defenses of Adrianople and Are Drawing the Lines Tighter on the Town.Sofia, Bulgaria, Nov. 29.—Two entire divisions of the Turkish reserve surrendered to-day to the Bulgarian troops near the village of Marhamli, between the ports of Dedegatch and Demotica, according to an announcement from the official news agency.Sofia, Bulgaria, Nov. 29.—The lines of investment drawn by the Bulgarian troops around the beleaguered Turkish stronghold of Adrianople are being tightened, attackers in the trenches being within a thousand yards of the city itself. Foreign consuls hoisted flags over the officers to-day to prevent the Bulgarians firing shells in their direction.

SERVIANS SEIZE DURAZZO.

Took the Seacoast Town Without Resistance Yesterday.London, Nov. 29.—The Servians, ignoring the proclamation of Albanian independence, having occupied the port of Durazzo without resistance. This information came in a direct dispatch from that town last night.Thus the conflict is now raised in acute form between Austria and Serbia, and it remains to be seen whether the Austrian government will take any direct action or will be content to leave the question for the after-the-war settlement.The Servian action, coupled with the eminently warlike feeling prevailing at Vienna is likely to keep Europe in a continued state of anxiety. On the other hand, the fact that the negotiations are progressing at Baghete, that there is no sign of the resumption of operations on the Tebalja lines and that the great powers are exchanging proposals for the assembling of European conference, all make for a peaceful settlement.Should the proposed conference materialize—for apparently Austria has not yet consented to participate—it would be considered as preparatory to a later full conference, which would include the Balkan states and Turkey, for a final settlement of all questions. Nothing has been decided as to where the conference will be held or precisely what questions will be discussed.The project appears to have arisen out of a general sense of irritation at the inevitable delays necessitated by the constant telegraphic interchange of views.
Great secrecy is preserved regarding the conference at Baghete, and it is not known whether the plenipotentiaries are discussing the terms of an armistice or bases for the conclusion of peace.It is reported from Rome that a provisional Albanian government has been constituted at Avlona by eighty Albanian delegates.

SERBIANS CAPTURE TOWN.

After Desperate Encounter With Turkish Troops.Belgrade, Serbia, Nov. 29.—Serbian troops have captured the town of Dibra in Albania after a desperate encounter with the Turks, who had rallied there after retreat from Monastir and been joined by contingents of Malissori and Arnaut tribesmen. With the capture of Dibra the Macedonians have been suddenly.

SERBIANS CAPTURE TOWN.

Is Reported—Recruits Being Called in Ahead of Time.Vienna, Nov. 29.—The assertion that Serbia is mobilizing against Austria was made to-day by the newspaper Reichs-post which says that entrenched positions near the town of Semendria on the Danube have been occupied by Serbian troops. The Serbian recruits belonging to the contingents are due to be summoned next year and the year after, are being called out by the war office, and the Christian prisoners among the Turkish troops captured are being induced to serve in the Serbian army.

SAGGING GIRDER CAUSED WRECK.

Which Killed Four Men and Injured Several Others.Philadelphia, Nov. 29.—National, state, county and railroad officials are conducting investigations as to the cause of the wreck of the Pennsylvania railroad train Wednesday night at Glen Loch, causing the death of four men and injury to more than half a hundred passengers. The dead are Howard L. Bal-win, sleeping car conductor, Flatbush, N. Y.; Edwin R. Jones, sleeping car conductor, Pittsburgh, Pa.; L. D. Finley, Pittsburgh; James Collins, Pittsburgh.Many of the injured removed to hospitals in West Chester and Harrisburg were sufficiently recovered yesterday to go to their homes, and only four passengers are now regarded as in a critical condition. They are Mrs. Mary Hudnutt, New York; her daughter, Miss Ruth H. Hudnutt; Albert S. Walters of Somerset, Pa.; and Archibald R.
Jones of Wilkesburg, Pa.Marshall John P. Dehoney, who investigated the wreck on behalf of the state railroad commission, said last night that it appears to have been caused by the sagging of a girder on the bridge which depressed the track. This probably caused couplings to break and the cars to leave the tracks beyond the bridge.

KEENAN MAY BE ALIVE.

Boy Lost in White Mountains Reported to Be in Hospital.Boston, Nov. 29.—John M. Keenan, the Charlestown boy who was lost in the clouds on Mount Washington two months ago, may still be alive and an inmate of an insane hospital at Montreal, according to a letter received by the boy's parents, Dr. George Villenneuve, medical superintendent of the St.
Jean de Dieu hospital in that city, has written, saying that a boy answering Keenan's description has been in the hospital since September 18.Keenan disappeared while engaged in surveying work on Mount Washington on September 15. For ten days his parties searched the mountains without avail for trace of him. The boy's mother has refused to believe him dead, and has written to scores of hospitals and institutions in the United States and Canada in an effort to trace him.30,000 WAIST MAKERS EXPECTED TO STRIKEDecision in New York Industry Is Expected to Be Made Next Week—They Had a Strike Two Years Ago.New York, Nov. 29.—Preparations are being made here for a strike of waist makers. A decision by the union, with a membership of 30,000, is expected next week. A strike two years ago was successful.

CHILD MURDERED.

Mutilated Body of Lillian Schadle of Pittsburg Found.Pittsburg, Nov. 29.—The mutilated body of Lillian Schadle, aged 12, who disappeared from her home Wednesday was found last night in a private reservoir near Adams, a suburb. Garments worn by the child when she disappeared were discovered near the reservoir and led to the finding of the body.The girl left her home after school Wednesday to buy supplies for the Thanksgiving dinner. Her failure to return a few hours later alarmed her parents and the authorities were notified. It was ascertained that she visited several stores and made her purchases. A party, headed by the girl's father, searched the hillside in the vicinity of the Schadle home. Last night torn clothing and scattered parcels were found near Arlmore, in a different direction from the one leading to the child's home. A nearby reservoir was drained and the body recovered.EXPECT A VERDICT IN HYDE CASE TO-NIGHTCounsel for Defense Summed Up in the Bribery Case This Morning and Prosecution This Afternoon.New York, Nov. 29.—To-day marked the close of the bribery trial of Charles H. Hyde, former city chamberlain, charged with bribery. Counsel for the defense summed up this morning, and Assistant District Attorney Moss planned to make his argument this afternoon. A verdict is expected tonight.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Richard Veale of Newport, N. H., passed Thanksgiving day with his family in Barre.Mr. and Mrs. John Bailey of Concord, N. H., were visitors in the city over Wednesday and Thursday.Miss Laura Doherty returned this morning from Burlington, where she visited friends over Thanksgiving.Mrs. D. W. Herbert and two daughters, Montreal, P. Q., has been passing a few days with relatives on Maple avenue.Mrs. C. B. Dennison returned this morning to her home in Hanover, N. H., after spending a few days with friends in the city.Mr. and Mrs. Norman J. Morrison returned this morning from South Ryegate, where they passed Thanksgiving at the latter's home.Miss Mary B. Boyce of Elm street returned this morning from Montreal, P.
Q., where she has been passing a few days with her aunt.Miss Laura Doherty, who has been passing two months with relatives on Prince Edward island, returned to Barre last night. After visiting at her home in Granvilleville for a few days, Miss Doherty will resume her duties in this city.Funeral services for George L. Ross, whose death occurred at his home in Harrington avenue early Wednesday morning, will be held in the First Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, the pastor, Rev. Duncan Salmond, officiating. The burial will take place in Hope cemetery.David Bird of Springfield, Mass., who has been representing the Hendee Motor Co. in Atlanta, Ga., for several months, was a visitor in the city yesterday on his way to Hartford for short business trip. Mr. Bird will return to Barre to-morrow for a week's visit with his brother, Fred Bird, of 23 Maple avenue.Word has been received from James Booth, who went to a hospital in Montreal last Friday night, suffering from steel in one eye, that following an X-ray examination an operation was performed, in which two pieces of steel were removed. Another X-ray disclosed a third piece of steel, and a second operation will be performed to remove that. Mr. Booth was injured Friday while working at Marr & Gordon's.The remains of Charles P. Bailey, the Granvilleville carpenter, whose death occurred at the City hospital Wednesday morning, after an illness of seven weeks, were taken Thursday morning to Claremont, N. H., where the funeral was held yesterday afternoon. The burial took place in Claremont. The body was accompanied by Ernest Bailey, a brother of the deceased, who came to Barre Wednesday.Mrs. Carrie Draper Woodward, a former teacher in the city schools, was a visitor in the city Wednesday. Mrs.
Woodward, who has been spending some time in Randolph and other places in Vermont, started on the journey to her home in Seattle, Wash., to-day, accompanied by her husband, Dr. Walter C.
Woodward, who came from Seattle to attend a medical meeting in New York City, and who has been visiting his parents in Randolph, joining his wife and little daughter there.SAFELY TOWED INTO HARBORThe Steamer George E. Warren Rescued Today

WHEN OFF BLOCK ISLAND

Steamer Sent Up Distress Signals Which Were Seen by Steamer Nantucket, Which Stood By—Tug Acushnet Came to Assistance.Block Island, R. I., Nov. 29.—The steamer George E. Warren, bound from Portland for New York, which broke down off here last night, was towed into Narragansett bay to-day. The Warren sent up rockets when engine trouble developed.The steamer Nantucket, bound from Providence to Norfolk, stood by the vessel for a while and when assured that the Warren needed only a tow into the harbor and that the revenue cutter Acushnet had been called upon, proceeded on her voyage.The disabled steamer carried no passengers.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Edward Boynton of Manchester, N. H., visited friends in the city yesterday.Twin daughters were born this morning to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Barclay of West Hill.R. E. Booth of Essex Junction arrived in the city this morning for a week's business visit.Mr. and Mrs. S. Hollister Jackson of Wellington street were visitors in Burlington yesterday.John Bottomini has returned from Hardwick and resumed his duties at the Diversi fruit store.Auction sale Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Pearl street auction rooms.
O. H. Hale, auctioneer.F. H. Bartlett returned this morning from South Ryegate, where he passed the holiday with friends.Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Drown and two sons of Walnut street visited in Lyn-donville Thanksgiving day.Mrs. William Park and son, John Park, went yesterday to Waterbury for several days' visit with relatives.M. W. of A. public dance at Howland hall Saturday, Nov. 30. Riley's orchestra. Gents, 50 cents; ladies, free.J. Tongway of Beckley street returned last night from Burlington, where he has been passing a few days with friends.Mr. and Mrs. James J. Goodwin of Mercham street were guests of friends in Enosburg Falls over Thanksgiving day.Miss Gwendolyn Pitkin of Church street returned home this morning, after passing a few days with friends in Plainfield.Miss Ada J. Sherburne of Elm street has gone to Burlington, where she will visit her brother, Rev. L. O. Sherburne, for a few days.Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Jarvis of Franklin street returned last night from Burlington, where they visited relatives over Thanksgiving.We clip the following from the Mount Clements Daily Leader: "W. H. Rivard of Barre, Vt., is among late comers at the Tennessee."Mr. and Mrs. Irving Twombly returned this morning to their home in Milton, after spending Thanksgiving day with friends in Barre.Special meeting of truckmen to-night in painters' hall at 7:30. Please be present, as there is business of importance. Per order president.Miss Ruth Eastman, who attends school in Burlington, is passing a few days with her mother, Mrs. E. M. Eastman, of Washington street.Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hickok, who have been visiting friends in the city for a few days, returned this morning to their home in Winchendon, Mass.Fifty musicians connected with Sousa's band, which gave a concert in the opera house last night, left this morning over the M. & W. road for Woodville, N. H.States Attorney J. Ward Carver and Mrs.
Carver of Church street passed Thanksgiving at the home of the former's parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. S. Carver, in Marshallfield.Joseph Denny of Washington street went yesterday to Northfield, where he passed the day with Mrs. Denny and child, who have been making an extended visit there.Thanksgiving day services were held at the Church of the Good Shepherd yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, the pastor, Rev. W. J. M. Beattie, preaching an appropriate sermon.John L. Mitchell of Academy street, who is taking a few days' vacation from his duties in the New England Frit store, left yesterday for a short visit with relatives in Burlington.Rev. C. C. Porteus, who spoke in the North Barre Methodist mission Tuesday, returned Wednesday night to his home in West Burke, after making a short visit with friends in the city.Two old favorites at the Bijou to-day, Florence Lawrence and Owen Moore, in a two-reel comedy-drama, "Not Like Other Girls"; also a 101 Bison, "The Little Rancher." The home of the best and clearest pictures.R. A. Eastman and H. G. Bennett returned home this week from West Fair-lee, where they had been hunting deer for the past two weeks. Mr. Bennett was successful in bringing down a 200-pound buck Monday afternoon.Twenty-five young people gathered at the home of Miss Georgia Palmer in upper Granvilleville Tuesday evening. The affair came in the nature of a surprise to Miss Palmer, although she proved herself equal to the occasion and proceeded to royally entertain her guests. Games and music were in order during the early hours of the evening and afterwards refreshments of cake, coffee and fruit were served.Auction sale Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Pearl street auction rooms.
O. H. Hale, auctioneer.CHARGE OF SHOT HIT HIS HEARTHarry G. Webb Victim of Hunting Accident at Derry, N. H.—He Was a Native of Danville, Vt.Derry, N. H., Nov. 29.—An unfortunate shooting accident occurred here yesterday afternoon, when Harry G. Webb lost his life. Mr. Webb, in company with four other young men, went to the Piney hill to hunt rabbits, as he had done several times this fall.The dog ran a rabbit to a stone wall, and there the party tried to find the animal. Mr. Webb looked on one side to find it and the others strayed a short distance beyond him. Suddenly they heard the report of a shotgun and, on looking, saw Mr. Webb fall to the ground. They ran to his side just in time to find him breathing his last. Dr.
Samuel J. Cogswell was quickly on the spot and acting under instructions from the county solicitor, took the place of the medical referee, who was absent.The body was taken in Mr. Trowbridge's automobile to the undertaking rooms of A. G. Kelley.It was found by the medical referee that the entire charge of shot had entered the young man's breast just below the heart and had probably lacerated that member and the left lung. The young man's parents were nearly prostrated.Harry Guy Webb was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Webb, who live at 8 Everett street in this town. A brother, Hugh, and a sister, Emeline P. Webb, also survive. He was born in Danville, Vt., 27 years ago. He lived in Epping several years and was a member of the Epping grange. He was also a member of the Derry Athletic association.Over four years ago he came here to act as drug clerk in H. Benson's pharmacy. He worked diligently and by hard study and close application to the business had succeeded in being registered in this state. The funeral will be held at the home on Everett street Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

WIFE NO. 1 GOT ESTATE.

But Will Settle a Portion on Deluded Wife No. 2.Burlington, Nov. 29.—The inheritance of part of a fortune left by a father whom she had never seen and who ran away from home leaving her mother with two little ones to care for just prior to the birth of herself, has fallen to Miss Eliza L. Cassavoy of 191 South Willard street, an almost life-long resident of this city and for much of that time employed in the household of the late Dr. James Lewis, for years a leading dentist in Burlington. The story of the life of Anson K. Cassavoy, her father, and of the family's finally coming into his property reads like a romance.The father ran away from home about a half century ago and before his death had married a second wife, who contested the inheritance, but upon the decision of the surrogate of White Plains, Mrs. Eliza Cassavoy of Keeseville with her sons, George, of Ansable Forks and Andrew M., of Saranac lake, and her daughter here will have the estate of over $60,000, including real and personal property.Cassavoy worked at the trade of tinsmith in Keeseville more than a half century ago and on November 16, 1860, married Miss Eliza Ruel, the ceremony being performed in the French church in that village. Three years later, and just prior to the birth of the third child, he disappeared mysteriously and it was not until many years later that any clue to his whereabouts was found by the abandoned wife. During this time, by working heroically, the mother had reared her family of small ones, and because she disliked the publicity, which would accompany any action, preferred to let things run along as they had.In 1902, Mrs. Cassavoy further learned that the man had married another woman in Little Falls, N. Y., and that in 1884 the couple had taken up their abode in Peeksburg, Mrs. Cassavoy did nothing to punish the errant one and he lived in the city on the Hudson for 28 years.Here he was engaged in the real estate business and accumulated a fortune.Seven months ago Cassavoy died and his wives appeared at the surrogate's office and applied for letters of administration. Wife number two claimed that the man had been divorced from his first wife in Albany county and that the first wife had therefore no claim on the property. The attorney of wife number one proved to the satisfaction of the surrogate, however, that the divorce was fraudulently procured, as no summons had been made for trial to his client.Residents of Keeseville testified that at the time summons were alleged to have been made on Mrs. Cassavoy, the man who was said to have served them was living in Chicago. Surrogate Millard decided wife number two had no claims on the property, but that the entire estate should go to the first Mrs.
Cassavoy and her three children. It is understood that the heirs have agreed to the payment of a certain sum to the second wife.This satisfied Surrogate Millard and he decided wife number two had no
claims on the property, but that the en-
tire estate should go to the first Mrs.
Cassavoy and her three children. It is
understood that the heirs have agreed to
the payment of a certain sum to the
second wife.This satisfied Surrogate Millard and
he decided wife number two had no
claims on the property, but that the en-
tire estate should go to the first Mrs.
Cassavoy and her three children. It is
understood that the heirs have agreed to
the payment of a certain sum to the
second wife.This satisfied Surrogate Millard and
he decided wife number two had no
claims on the property, but that the en-
tire estate should go to the first Mrs.
Cassavoy and her three children. It is
understood that the heirs have agreed to
the payment of a certain sum to the
second wife.This satisfied Surrogate Millard and
he decided wife number two had no
claims on the property, but that the en-
tire estate should go to the first Mrs.
Cassavoy and her three children. It is
understood that the heirs have agreed to
the payment of a certain sum to the
second wife.This satisfied Surrogate Millard and
he decided wife number two had no
claims on the property, but that the en-
tire estate should go to the first Mrs.
Cassavoy and her three children. It is
understood that the heirs have agreed to
the payment of a certain sum to the
second wife.This satisfied Surrogate Millard and
he decided wife number two had no
claims on the property, but that the en-
tire estate should go to the first Mrs.
Cassavoy and her three children. It is
understood that the heirs have agreed to
the payment of a certain sum to the
second wife.This satisfied Surrogate Millard and
he decided wife number two had no
claims on the property, but that the en-
tire estate should go to the first Mrs.
Cassavoy and her three children. It is
understood that the heirs have agreed to
the payment of a certain sum to the
second wife.This satisfied Surrogate Millard and
he decided wife number two had no
claims on the property, but that the en-
tire estate should go to the first Mrs.
Cassavoy and her three children. It is
understood that the heirs have agreed to
the payment of a certain sum to the
second wife.This satisfied Surrogate Millard and
he decided wife number two had no
claims on the property, but that the en-
tire estate should go to the first Mrs.
Cassavoy and her three children. It is
understood that the heirs have agreed to
the payment of a certain sum to the
second wife.This satisfied Surrogate Millard and
he decided wife number two had no
claims on the property, but that the en-
tire estate should go to the first Mrs.
Cassavoy and her three children. It is
understood that the heirs have agreed to
the payment of a certain sum to the
second wife.This satisfied Surrogate Millard and
he decided wife number two had no
claims on the property, but that the en-
tire estate should go to the first Mrs.
Cassavoy and her three children. It is
understood that the heirs have agreed to
the payment of a certain sum to the
second wife.This satisfied Surrogate Millard and
he decided wife number two had no
claims on the property, but that the en-
tire estate should go to the first Mrs.
Cassavoy and her three children. It is
understood that the heirs have agreed to
the payment of a certain sum to the
second wife.This satisfied Surrogate Millard and
he decided wife number two had no
claims on the property, but that the en-
tire estate should go to the first Mrs.
Cassavoy and her three children. It is
understood that the heirs have agreed to
the payment of a certain sum to the
second wife.This satisfied Surrogate Millard and
he decided wife number two had no
claims on the property, but that the en-
tire estate should go to the first Mrs.
Cassavoy and her three children. It is
understood that the heirs have agreed to
the payment of a certain sum to the
second wife.This satisfied Surrogate Millard and
he decided wife number two had no
claims on the property, but that the en-
tire estate should go to the first Mrs.
Cassavoy and her three children. It is
understood that the heirs have agreed to
the payment of a certain sum to the
second wife.This satisfied Surrogate Millard and
he decided wife number two had no
claims on the property, but that the en-
tire estate should go to the first Mrs.
Cassavoy and her three children. It is
understood that the heirs have agreed to
the payment of a certain sum to the
second wife.This satisfied Surrogate Millard and
he decided wife number two had no
claims on the property, but that the en-
tire estate should go to the first Mrs.
Cassavoy and her three children. It is
understood that the heirs have agreed to
the payment of a certain sum to the
second wife.This satisfied Surrogate Millard and
he decided wife number two had no
claims on the property, but that the en-
tire estate should go to the first Mrs.
Cassavoy and her three children. It is
understood that the heirs have agreed to
the payment of a certain sum to the
second wife.This satisfied Surrogate Millard and
he decided wife number two had no
claims on the property, but that the en-
tire estate should go to the first Mrs.
Cassavoy and her three children. It is
understood that the heirs have agreed to
the payment of a certain sum to the
second wife.This satisfied Surrogate Millard and
he decided wife number two had no
claims on the property, but that the en-
tire estate should go to the first Mrs.
Cassavoy and her three children. It is
understood that the heirs have agreed to
the payment of a certain sum to the
second wife.This satisfied Surrogate Millard and
he decided wife number two had no
claims on the property, but that the en-
tire estate should go to the first Mrs.
Cassavoy and her three children. It is
understood that the heirs have agreed to
the payment of a certain sum to the
second wife.This satisfied Surrogate Millard and
he decided wife number two had no
claims on the property, but that the en-
tire estate should go to the first Mrs.
Cassavoy and her three children. It is
understood that the heirs have agreed to
the payment of a certain sum to the
second wife.This satisfied Surrogate Millard and
he decided wife number two had no
claims on the property, but that the en-
tire estate should go to the first Mrs.
Cassavoy and her three children. It is
understood that the heirs have agreed to
the payment of a certain sum to the
second wife.This satisfied Surrogate Millard and
he decided wife number two had no
claims on the property, but that the en-
tire estate should go to the first Mrs.
Cassavoy and her three children. It is
understood that the heirs have agreed to
the payment of a certain sum to the
second wife.This satisfied Surrogate Millard and
he decided wife number two had no
claims on the property, but that the en-
tire estate should go to the first Mrs.
Cassavoy and her three children. It is
understood that the heirs have agreed to
the payment of a certain sum to the
second wife.This satisfied Surrogate Millard and
he decided wife number two had no
claims on the property, but that the en-
tire estate should go to the first Mrs.
Cassavoy and her three children. It is
understood that the heirs have agreed to
the payment of a certain sum to the
second wife.This satisfied Surrogate Millard and
he decided wife number two had no
claims on the property, but that the en-
tire estate should go to the first Mrs.
Cassavoy and her three children. It is
understood that the heirs have agreed to
the payment of a certain sum to the
second wife.This satisfied Surrogate Millard and
he decided wife number two had no
claims on the property, but that the en-
tire estate should go to the first Mrs.
Cassavoy and her three children. It is
understood that the heirs have agreed to
the payment of a certain sum to the
second wife.This satisfied Surrogate Millard and
he decided wife number two had no
claims on the property, but that the en-
tire estate should go to the first Mrs.
Cassavoy and her three children. It is
understood that the heirs have agreed to
the payment of a certain sum to the
second wife.This satisfied Surrogate Millard and
he decided wife number two had no
claims on the property, but that the en-
tire estate should go to the first Mrs.
Cassavoy and her three children. It is
understood that the heirs have agreed to
the payment of a certain sum to the
second wife.This satisfied Surrogate Millard and
he decided wife number two had no
claims on the property, but that the en-
tire estate should go to the first Mrs.
Cassavoy and her three children. It is
understood that the heirs have agreed to
the payment of a certain sum to the
second wife.This satisfied Surrogate Millard and
he decided wife number two had no
claims on the property, but that the en-
tire estate should go to the first Mrs.
Cassavoy and her three children. It is understood that the